The 2010 Project Management Conference will be held in Wellington, 24-26 August 2010. By attending you will refresh and invigorate your project management thinking, introduce yourself to new ideas and people, and be inspired by presentations from leading practitioners.

Conference 2010 also provides an excellent opportunity to network with other project management professionals.

A diverse and interesting array of keynote speakers, papers, master classes, site visits, breakfast sessions and the conference and awards dinner await you. Check the conference website (www.pminzconference.com) now for more details.

Put the dates in your diary, and register now for the PMINZ Project Management Conference 2010.

Sponsors and exhibitors: There are still further opportunities available. Contact Linda Smith (sponsorship.conf2010@pmi.org.nz) to find out more about the value and exposure you can gain from the 2010 conference.

We acknowledge and thank our current sponsors.
